Leading Sustainably

A unique series of 2-day workshops 2018 at the famous Radiostation Beromünster near Zurich

A new enlightenment movement towards "planetary citizenship" can provide an alternative to the "post-truth society". We can challenge "economic-man" attitudes and make our organizations more meaningful. The world would be a more sustainable and pleasurable place.

Become a Change Agent
and start generating alternatives to today's exhausting and unsustainable work settings

Why would we care?

- We all co-create the world we live in through action or non-action
- We all need safety and subsistent living conditions as well as respect, acceptance, and integration in our communities
- We have the evidence how to serve these purposes much better than we do
- We all can contribute to change no matter what the current position

How can we do it?

- By sharing, discussing, challenging and reflecting experiences and cutting-edge interdisciplinary research with international experts
- Learning and exchanging with inspiring people from a broad variety of backgrounds and sectors
